5. A barracks installation of multi-story stone buildings, occupied by soldiers with red collar patches, was observed near Mathonova ulice in the Cerna Pole suburb of Brno. Several low wooden barracks buildings were seen on Kravi Hora Hill at the western perimeter of Brno. Six trucks were parked there. [redacted] the installation was a jamming station. However, the proper designation could not be learned. A barracks installation was located nearby.

Later, the headquarters was moved to a building on Husova ulice east of the Brno castle, while an unidentified unit of soldiers wearing red collar patches moved into the former headquarters building on Hybesova ulice.
